I Am a Writer

I write.
I write the truth.
I write what reveals truth.
I write my perception of the truth.
I write what inspires the truth in others.
I write the truth that causes us to cringe.

Writopia Camp

For J4 & M1-M4 students

During the 2 weeks Spring break, we will offer to students in J4 through M4 an exquisite writing workshop.

Writopia Lab runs one of the most fun and productive writing workshops for children and teens in New York City.

Each year, Writopia teens win more writing award than any other group of students.

While the focus of this series of workshops is on story writing and creative expression, the students explore structure and grammar and ultimately organize their thoughts into coherent, fluid complete narratives.

Workshops are run by published authors or produced playwrights. The method is student-centered; at Writopia, teens write at their best ability. Sessions are peppered with instructive games and helpful exercises. Each writer leaves the workshop with a completed piece in hand. Information : writopialab.org

Leadership Camp

For J3-J4 & M1-M4 students

Difference between a BOSS and a LEADER :

A great one of a kind workshop

This series of workshops gives the students the skills to succeed in presenting themselves with assurance, asserting and arguing their point effectively, finding solutions quickly, taking initiative, understanding how to negotiate and delegate harmoniously. This class is structured around fun projects and games that encourage the exploration of inquiry, initiative, adaptability, critical thinking, negotiation, delegation and proper presentation through improvisation games, engineering projects, lego activities, physical activities, science experiments and more. While cultivating the skills, students build strong, successful relationships. They learn how to find their voice and showcase themselves and their work in the best way. The following are the components of the program:

LEADERSHIP Students will learn and apply valuable leadership skills like Negotiation, Delegation, Initiative, Adaptability, Conflict Resolution, Communication, Time Management and more.

SPEECH AND DEBATE They will learn how to address and present their views in a persuasive, compelling way while learning how to address and negate their opponent's argument. Debate aligns with Common Core reading, writing, and English Language Arts standards. It is an excellent way to build a child's confidence and teach them how to advocate for themselves.

COURT TRIAL A court trial is a fun and exciting way to experience the Judicial process. Students will utilize age-appropriate resources provided by the American Bar Association. Court trial combines the energy and excitement of debate with the drama of the Theater. Students will take part in a simulated trial (criminal or civil) and play the roles of Attorney, Defendant, Plaintiff, Witness, Bailiff, Judge, and Jury. Student attorneys will learn how to craft and deliver opening and closing statements, examine, cross-examine and re-direct witnesses, present incriminating evidence and more.

AMANDA SAWYER

The instructor of this class is Ms. Amanda Sawyer. She has taught students at the Leman Preparatory, Ecole International, the Hudson School, Packer Collegiate, Dalton, St. Bernards and Horace Mann. Her program is focused on social skills, public speaking and presentation. It was developed in conjunction with The University of Cambridge. Their findings showed that after several months of activities and exercise in communication, delegation and presentation the children's literacy, arithmetic and reasoning scores improved significantly.
